EIU'S DELTA SIGMA PHI RAISES FUNDS FOR MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

CHARLESTON – Members of Eastern Illinois University's Delta Sigma Phi fraternity recently assisted one of their fellow Greek organizations by raising $500 for the Amy Blumberg Memorial Scholarship.

Blumberg, 20, of Collinsville, was found shot to death New Year's Eve at her workplace; the case remains unsolved. She was a member of Eastern's Gamma Mu chapter of Sigma Kappa sorority and a junior studying family and consumer sciences.

Scott Muhr, treasurer and former community service chair of Delta Sigma Phi, said the fraternity raised the funds through a flag football tournament held this spring. All of Eastern's sororities participated, and money raised through entrance fees and t-shirts sales went toward the scholarship.

Ryan Fain, past president of Delta Sigma Phi, added that the fraternity was pleased both with the excellent participation of Eastern's various sororities and the money amount raised.

The event and enthusiastic response represented one of the positive sides of Greek life, Fain continued, noting that the fraternity would like to make the tournament an annual event.
